Annette Vallon A Novel Of
Annette Vallon has been marketed as a historical novel about English poet William Wordsworth's youthful love affair. But Tipton's book is about Annette, a remarkable woman who made of herself much more than a famous poet's early muse. And it is about the French Revolution, including the Reign of Terror, which shaped her destiny.

James Tipton's Annette Vallon must be savored sentence by sentence. The novel is founded on history, but extra-literary: a tale recounting events in William Wordsworth's life as recorded in the letters of the poet and his lover Vallon. A poet himself, Tipton instills poetry in a tale that seems to follow faithfully the events of those lives.
