'the baltimore waltz' has been one of my favourite plays from the first time i read it. this compilation has a wonderful variety and shows what range vogel has as a writer. 'and baby makes seven' and 'the oldest profession' are both a riot o laughs. 'hot'n'throbbing' is a disturbing yet much needed look at domestic violence. (i bet the NEA folks loved it. ha!) by reading any of her plays, you ...

Covering about twenty different locations over the course of three months, The Baltimore Waltz is not a neat and tidy little drama. Its sensibilities run towards absurdist comedy mixed with genuine pathos, and the play becomes increasingly surreal as the evening wanes. The overall effect is a very funny play with some very moving sequences, mostly based on Anna's fear of mortality, but it ...
